Haven't we learn already the consequences of "monopoly"? When I chose my local internet provider, I made a consient choice, and I want to keep it. I don't want the "bigger and better". We know that the "bigger" they get, more we costumers suffer with poor service and more hessel.
Please, keep the market open.
Thank you
Adriana